LOS CAMINOS DEL CAJÓN
DVD LEVEL: ALL 25 EUROS

Los Caminos Del Cajón (The Ways Of The Cajón) is a dynamic film about the roots and diversity of the Afro-Peruvian "box." The opening sequence takes you into the workshop of the film's director, Paolo de Gregorio, as a new cajón is being sanded to perfection. This instrument has been around since the late nineteenth century in Peru, and has been popular in Spain and Cuba as well. Among other historical anecdotes, the DVD details how Peruvian percussionist Calto Soto introduced the cajón to world-renowned Spanish flamenco guitarist Paco de Lucia in the late 1970s, and how it's been his drum of choice ever since. There are many exciting performances of drumming and dancing throughout the film, featuring one virtuoso player after another, as well as interviews with the likes of ZAKIR HUSSAIN and STEWART COPELAND. This is truly a celebration of the cajón. (www.cajonDG.com) David Licht
